Ferret Video Contest Changes

The International Ferret Congress recently extended the deadline of its ferret video contest from June 30th to July 15th. It has also decided that videos previously posted on YouTube can be submitted. The goal is to get the funniest ferret home videos and showcase the winners at the IFC symposium in Pittsburgh this November. A DVD of the winning videos will be sold to raise money for ADV research for ferrets. Visit the website>>

Pet Crematorium Offers Online Viewing

Some people in the Czech Republic are opting to watch the cremation of a departed pet online instead of waiting in town until the crematorium can get to their pet, the Prague Daily Monitor reports. View the article>>
