

The Ferrets Magazine Newswire, September 12, 2008

Rabies; Food Safety; Found Ferret; New Shelter; Fictional Ferrets.

Posted: September 12, 2008, 3 p.m. EDT

Rabies Cases Highest In September And October

Texas officials offer tips to help pet owners avoid getting their pets infected with rabies during this peak period, reports EmaxHealth. Read Now>>

USDA Offers Tips For Keeping Food Safe During An Emergency

A recent press release from the USDA offers food safety tips for preparing for a weather emergency and what to do after a weather emergency. Read Now>>

Ferret Found In Newton Poppleford (UK)

A man in Newton Poppleford, Devon, found a ferret in his back yard and hopes the owner will come forward to claim it, reports the Exmouth Herald (UK). Read Now>>

New Ferret Rescue/Shelter In Scotland

The Bemax Ferret Rescue Centre covers northeast Scotland and already has 27 residents, reports the Press And Journal (UK). Read Now>>

Ferrets Add To Fancy Of Fictional Story

About 240 people band together at a Colorado festival to write a story, one sentence at a time, reports the Coloradoan.com. Read Now>>