

The SmallAnimalChannel Newswire - September 12, 2008

Stay up-to-date with the latest small animal news from all around the world.

Posted: September 12, 2008, 5 a.m. EDT

Hamster Goes For A Run

Lucky the hamster survived a run in her hamster ball along the side of a main road, reports the News & Star. Read Now>>

A Bunny For The Entire School

At an elementary school in Iowa, all the students can visit the school bunny in the main office, reports The Des Moines Registers. Read Now>>

Wild Mouse In Danger

The endangered Preble's meadow jumping mouse has been taken off the protected list in Wyoming but not Colorado, and environmental groups are preparing to sue the U.S. Fish & Wildlife service because of the reduced protection, reports LocalNews8.com. Read Now>>

Rare Wild Hedgehog Rescued in UK

A rare blonde hedgehog is recovering nicely in Shropshire after nearly dying, reports The Independent (UK). Read Now>>

Pet Hamster Saved From Trash

Kind-hearted contractors clearing out a house rescue a hamster that was put out with the trash, reports the Pendle Today. Read Now>>

Rabbits Need Vaccinations In UK

Recent cases of myxomatosis in the Salisbury region of the United Kingdom have veterinarians warning rabbit owners to vaccinate their rabbits, reports the Salisbury Journal. Read Now>>