

The Weekly Ferrets Magazine Newswire - March 27, 2009

Ferret Show; Ferret And Dog; Animal Welfare Trophy; Petrified Forest; Black-Footed Ferret Count; Superhero; Profile.

Posted: March 27, 2009, 7:45 p.m. EDT

Ferrets Take The Spotlight At Show

The American Ferret Association is holding its Spring Nationals Show March 28 in York, Pennsylvania, reports InYork.com. Read Now>>

Ferret And Jack Russell Dog Are Friends

The unlikely friendship started when the ferret was a baby and fell off a balcony — the dog came to its rescue, reports the Sunderland Echo (UK). Read Now>>

National Ferret Welfare Society Awards Animal Welfare Trophy

Donna Matthews takes the UK's top award for ferret welfare, reports ThisIsSouthDevon.com. Read Now>>

Ferrets And Other Pets Welcome At Petrified Forest

The Petrified Forest National Park in Arizona is one of the few national parks that allows owners to visit with their pets, reports Examiner.com. Read Now>>

Black-Footed Ferret Count

Wildlife officials search for black-footed ferrets in Kansas to determine how many captive-born ferrets survived in the wild, reports the Wichita Eagle. Read Now>>

Superhero Ferret Comic Book

Itachi The Aikido Ferret is a superhero ferret whose story is now available in a comic book at ComiXpress. View Now>>

Ferret Profiled

Ferrets are discussed in a news station's series on animals, reports Newschannel 34. View Now>>