

Plants That Are Poisonous To Ferrets

Be aware of what plants might be toxic to your pet ferret.

By Sharon Vanderlip, DVM

Posted: February 16, 2009, 5 a.m. EST

Many ornamental plants are toxic to ferrets if ingested. The toxic parts of plants may include the leaves, flowers, bulbs, stems or all parts of the plants. Some of the more common poisonous plants are listed below.

- Aconite
- Amaryllis
- American holly
- American nightshade
- Angel's trumpet
- Azalea
- Bird of paradise
- Birdseye primrose
- Blue cardinal flower (lobelia)
- Buttercup (ranunculus)
- Crocus
- Chrysanthemum
- Daffodil
- Daily
- Foxglove (digitalis)
- Hydrangea
- Iris
- Kalanchoe
- Lily (several species)
- Lupine
- Mistletoe
- Monkshood
- Oleander
- Onion
- Philodendron
- Rhododendron
- Sago palm
- Schefflera
- Tulip
- Wolfsbane
- Yew