Here's a sneak preview of Jeanne Carley's Ferret Calendar for 2009, which reaches stores by mid-July and is available on her website. Take the quiz below to find out how good your popular movie knowledge is.

Residents of the United States can also enter to win one of the two calendars being given away, courtesy of Jeanne Carley. Just e-mail us your name and shipping address during the month of July 2008. A random drawing of entries will determine the winners, who will be sent their calendars in August 2008. To enter, click here>>

Jeanne Carley began producing her ferret calendar in 1995. In recent years, calendar themes have included ferret babies, ferret motion and ferret music. For 2009, Carley explored the theme of movie ferrets.

"This edition has been in the works for more than four years," Carley said. "The little boy riding the bicycle in one shot was 5 or 6 when I first photographed him. He is now 10! But it's been such a fun edition to do, and I'm very excited about the images. It was a long time in the making but worth the wait."
